He went to church every Sunday with his family and never missed a chance to spend time with his family on Sunday lunches after church. He loved his family very very much as do they. We will miss Pappa Pete very much and he is always in our hearts every day from now until the end.

In Memoriam

"God saw that he was getting tired, a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around him, and whispered "Come to me. With tearful eyes you saw him go, and softly fade away, and though you loved him dearly, you could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest; God broke your heart to prove to you, He only takes the best"
