The Liturgy at Calvary

The welcome of baptism is for all God's children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today's gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God's merciful welcome.

Text: Psalm 89:1
Music: J. H. Fillmore

- L “We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin” (Romans 6:6-7). Let us confess all the ways in which we continue to be in bondage to sin.

Silence is kept for confession and reflection

- L O God...
- C You know my sin; the wrongs I have done are not hidden from you. Save me, O God. Do not let those who hope in you be put to shame (Psalm 69:5,1a, 6a).
- L ...we have been buried with Jesus by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his (Romans 6:4-5).

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray... O God, you direct our lives by your grace, and your words of justice and mercy reshape the world. Mold us into a people who welcome your word and serve one another, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C Amen.

Please sit for today's scripture readings.

First Reading: Jeremiah 28:5-9

⁵The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; ⁶and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. ⁷But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. ⁸The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

L The Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

1. Mercy shall be built up forever. Your faithfulness established in the heavens. With my chosen I have made a covenant. I swore an oath to David my servant to preserve his throne forever. REFRAIN
2. Blessed are those who know the glad sound! They walk, O Lord, in the light of your presence. They rejoice in you name all day long. You are their glory, strength O Lord God. You, their strong one. You their sovereign. REFRAIN

Second Reading: Romans 6:12-23

¹²Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. ¹³No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, ¹⁸and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. ¹⁹I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

²⁰When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. ²²But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CREED

A Let us profess the faith in which we are Baptized:

ALL I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

A Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, and for all people according to their needs.

Capo fret 1

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of five staves of music. The first staff is an instrumental introduction. The lyrics are: "In the si-lence Lord, Hear our prayer. In the still-ness Lord, Hear our prayer. Our spo-ken words, our si-lent thoughts: these we hum-bly share. In this mo-ment Lord, Hear our prayer." Two Ways to Give

Please stand as our gifts of bread and wine are brought to the altar.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time and consists of ten staves of music. The lyrics are: "We lift our voices. We lift our hearts, we lift our lives up to you: we are an offering. Lord, use our voices. Lord, use our hearts. Lord, use our lives, they are yours: we are an offering. All that we have, all that we are, all that we hope to be we give to you, we give to you. We lift our voices we lift our hearts, we lift our lives up to you: we are an offering. We are an offering." The score includes various musical notations such as treble clefs, notes, rests, and dynamic markings. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: G, C2, Dm7, C2, F, C, Dm7, G, C2, Dm7, C2, F, C, Dm7, F, G7, Em7, Asus, Dm7, G7/sus, E, D, E, Am, Dm7, C2, Bb, Dm7, G, C2, Dm7, C2, F, C2, Dm7, G, C, Dm7, G, C.

A Let us pray. Merciful Father,
C we offer with joy and thanksgiving what you have first given us - our selves, our time, and our possessions, signs of your gracious love. Receive them for the sake of him who offered himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right and good that we should everywhere and always offer thanks and praise to you, holy God, mighty and immortal, through Jesus Christ our Lord,

The day of your final Jubilee dawned in your Son, Jesus, your Anointed One who announced good news to the poor, bound up the broken-hearted, and set the captives free.

And so with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

POSTLUDE America the Beautiful arr. by Marilyn Hamm

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Thomas, Apostle Monday, July 3

Though frequently remembered as "doubting Thomas," this apostle also demonstrated a willingness to suffer and die with Jesus (John 11:16), and finally claimed the risen Christ as "my Lord and my God!" By tradition, he later worked as a missionary in India. Long commemorated on December 21, Thomas's celebration is moved to July 3 in agreement with ecumenical calendars.

Jan Hus, martyr, died 1415 Thursday July 6

Hus was a Bohemian (present-day Czech Republic) priest who spoke against abuses in the church, and was seen by Martin Luther as his predecessor in the reforming movement. He was found guilty of heresy by a council of the church, and burned at the stake.
