The Liturgy at Calvary

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

Capo1

There's a light that lights the dark-ness and the world can - not con-tain it,
There are saints who light the dark-ness and the world can - not con-tain them and the world can - not ex-plain it. It is the light of God's cre - a - tion.
for the love of God sus-tains them, and they will nev - er be for - got-ten.
There's a love that flows with-in us, and the world can - not cre - ate it,
We are blest to have them with us, and we praise the God who made them.
and the world can - not ne-gate it, It is the love of God's sal - va - tion;
There is no way to re-pay them, and so we sim - ply do ap - plaud them.
and it shines like the sun. Glo-ry be to our Cre - a - tor! Glor ry as they shine like the sun.
to the Ho - ly One! Glo-ry be to Christ, our Sav - ior the Lord of Light, the King of Love. See Him shine like the sun.

Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

P Let us pray...
Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. C Amen

First Reading Revelation 7:9-17

⁹After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

¹¹And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

¹³Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" ¹⁴I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

¹⁶They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;

¹⁷for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,

and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3

¹See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew the 5th chapter.

¹When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. ²Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

³^aBlessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴^aBlessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵^aBlessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

⁶^aBlessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷^aBlessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

⁸^aBlessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

⁹^aBlessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

¹⁰^aBlessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

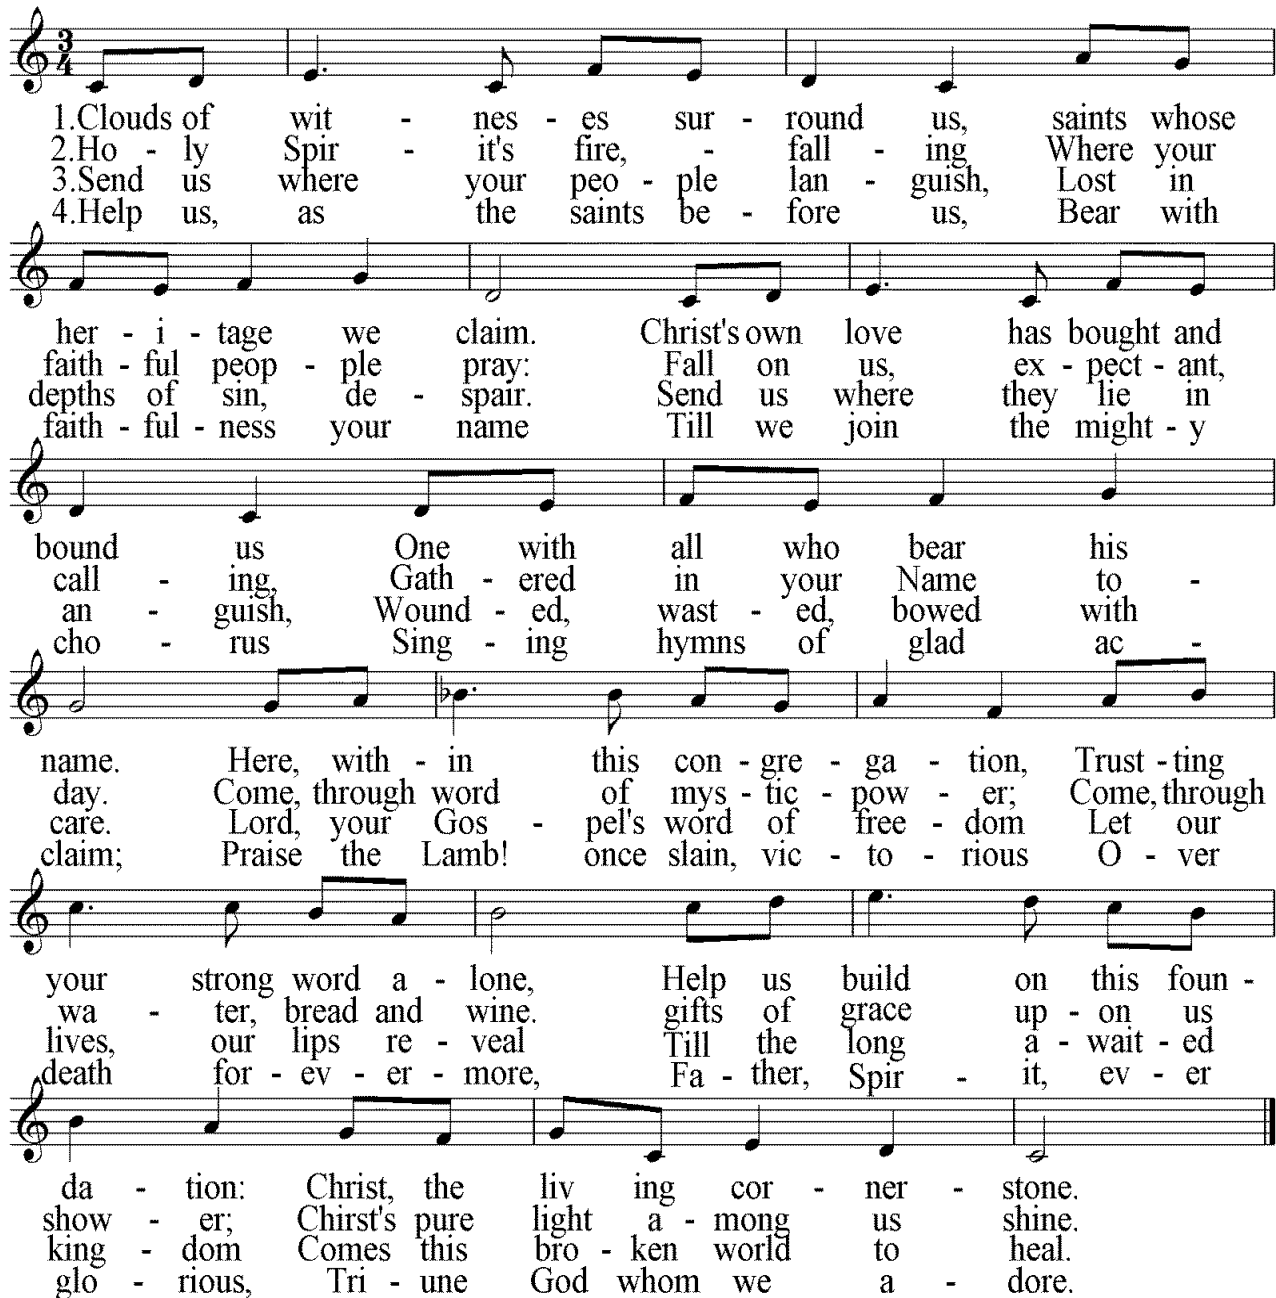

¹¹^aBlessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

¹²Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Creed

A Let us profess our faith in the Triune God

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Who is this host arrayed in white, like thousand snowclad mountains bright? These are the saints who kept God's word, the honored of the Lord. They now serve God both day and night, they sing their song in endless light, their anthems ring as now they sing with angels shining bright.

Children of the heav'nly Father safely in his bosom gather; nestling bird nor star in heaven such a refuge e'er was given. Though he giveth or he taketh, God his children ne'er forsaketh, his the loving purpose solely to preserve them pure and lowly. Neither life nor death shall ever from the Lord his children sever; unto them his grace he showeth, and their sorrow all he knoweth. Though he giveth or he taketh, God his children ne'er forsaketh, his the loving purpose solely to preserve them pure and lowly.

O Blessed saints, now take your rest; a thousand times shall you be blest; for now you live in heaven's home, and harvest seeds once sown. They myriad angels raise their song, O Saints, sing with that happy throng; lift up one voice; let heav'n rejoice on voice; let heav'n rejoice in our redeemer's song;

Commemorations this week

TUESDAY, NOV. 7

John Christian Frederick Heyer, died 1873;

Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg, died 1719;

Ludwig Nommensen, died 1918; missionaries

Heyer was the first missionary sent out by American Lutherans. After teaching at Gettysburg College and Seminary he was assigned to the Andhra region of India. A worker among the Tamil people on the southeast coast of India, Ziegenbalg was opposed both by local Hindus and by Danish authorities who favored a different missionary style. He was known for caring about the welfare of the whole person.

Nommensen was born in northern Germany and was sent to Sumatra as a Lutheran missionary. Working among the Batak people, he translated the scriptures into their language, and honored their native culture.

SATURDAY, NOV. 11

Martin, Bishop of Tours, died 397

Martin's pagan father enlisted him in the Roman army. Approached by a beggar, Martin cut his cloak in half and gave part to the man, whom he later understood as representing Christ. He asked to leave the army, but was jailed instead. After his release, he became a preacher, and later a bishop.

Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, teacher, died 1855

Kierkegaard was a Danish theologian whose writings also gave rise to the modern philosophy of existentialism. He frequently attacked the complacency of the state church of his day, as well as its desire to be accepted by polite society rather than be a stumbling block.
