ANNOUNCEMENTS

CLOSING OUR SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP DURING LENT

During the season of Lent, we turn our attention to activities and rituals meant to quiet our minds still our hearts, and allow us to draw near to God. Embodying those practices, we will end each Lenten Sunday worship with a silent recessional followed by a collective prayer. As we make our way to Jerusalem and the cross, we remember that to turn away from God is to fall, to turn toward God is to rise, and to stand before God is to abide forever.

There are still resources for your Lenten journey on the table in the Narthex. If you missed past weekly devotionals, there are copies in the office that you can pick up.
