Vol. 66, No. 10

In 1956, the world was shifting. You might picture Elvis taking the stage or President Eisenhower paving the way for the interstate highway system. You might remember the quiet power of the Montgomery bus boycotts — a moment that reshaped our nation's conscience. As memorable as those iconic moments were, we are gathering this fall to celebrate a different kind of movement that began in 1956: the birth of Calvary Lutheran Church.

In sleepy Richland Hills, on the corner of Baker Boulevard and Booth Calloway, members of Trinity Lutheran Church in downtown Fort Worth envisioned a church plant to serve the growing northeast suburbs. What began in an elementary school quickly put down deep roots on the corner where Calvary stands today.

While much has changed over seven decades, our foundation has remained steadfast. Dedicated pastoral leaders and faithful members have guided Calvary's steady growth. In recent years, expanded facilities and staff have strengthened the very mission set forth 70 years ago: sharing the Good News with our neighborhood and the wider church. That same energy and passion still echo through our halls today, telling the story of our faithful past while keeping our eyes fixed on the future.

Just as classic records get played on repeat, Calvary has spent 70 years celebrating its own King—joyously proclaiming "Christ is Risen!" again and again. Roads and highways may change around us, but Calvary has remained on its corner: a steady presence guiding people through life's highs and lows and pointing them toward Christ.

For 70 years, we have listened for God's call and striven to "proclaim and work for justice and peace in all the earth." Through countless baptisms and confirmations, we have affirmed this calling, sending forth disciples to embody God's promises in the world. We remain rooted in Scripture—from "In the beginning..." to the Gospel promise, "I am with you always, to the end of the age."

On Reformation Sunday and All Saints Sunday, we will give thanks for 70 years of God's faithfulness at Calvary. We look forward to welcoming special guest preachers and gathering for festival worship featuring our choir, orchestra, and handbells. Pastor Phil Heinze will preach on Reformation Sunday, October 25 and Bishop Erik Gronberg will preach on All Saints, November 1. Together, we will honor the saints who built this congregation and prayerfully look ahead to our calling for the years to come.

We hope you will join us in celebrating where we've been - and in stepping faithfully into the next 70 years.

COUNCIL CORNER

STEWARDSHIP

This year is a special one, commemorating 70 years of mission and ministry for Calvary Lutheran Church! In many ways, the monthly Calvary Caller memorializes Calvary's stewardship of our selves, our time, and our possessions. Each edition is filled with opportunities for service, fellowship, education, growth, care for self and others, etc. One does not need to look far to find ways to engage with our community! It truly is beyond our ability to comprehend how this has been happening for the last 70 years, other than by God's grace and love for His people.

At the heart of stewardship is a response to God's grace and love for us. When we grow our relationship with Him, when we serve with our time and talents, and when we give financially, we are giving back to God what He first gave us. It is love returned in response to love given, not because of anything we said or did, but pure unconditional love from God.

The congregation of Calvary Lutheran Church has been loving big for 70 years as God calls us to do! With every season, this has looked, and will continue to look, different. But the core of who we are as a priesthood of all believers remains steadfast. And for this we say "Thanks be to God!"

With Joy and Thanksgiving,
Stewardship Committee

November Caller Deadline is 10:00am, Thursday, October 22

Calvary Day of Service

God's Work, Our Hands!

On September 13 the ELCA rolled up its sleeves for God's Work, Our Hands Day! Calvary joined congregations from across the country to serve our neighbors. Calvary had members ages 2 - 80 participate in this day, making a difference in the world! Here are some of the projects.

A group partnered with Serving Our Seniors to help a local widow with medical issues clean up her yard.

School Kits were packed for Lutheran World Relief!

Yarnwinders (group picture MIA) spent the morning knitting and crocheting blankets.

Our children made cookies for Richland Hills Fire Department, helped wash their trucks and got a tour!

Blessing Bags for the unhoused! Some bags went to NEED and some are in the Narthex so people can take them for their cars.

Sandwiches were made for Presbyterian Night Shelter.

Meatloaves, cheesy potatoes & chicken pot pie freezer meals were prepared!

REFORMATION SUNDAY OCTOBER 25, 2026

Northeast Tarrant County Churches

On August 25, leaders and representatives from across Northeast Tarrant County gathered at Calvary for the second gathering of Northeast Tarrant County Churches. Pastor Kyle Symanski represented Calvary in this new and growing movement that brings together diverse Christian traditions. While acknowledging distinct theological backgrounds, this initiative focuses on what unites us - our shared calling to love God, serve our neighbors, and strengthen our local communities.

Initially, the group has begun collaborating to address local needs through joint action and resource sharing. Work is underway to establish our official network identity (mission, vision, and name) as well as a comprehensive regional Resource Guide for food insecurity, financial assistance, mental health, and crisis services.

The Church Mouse

Happy Fall, Friends! I took another picture for you with my camera from last Christmas! Calvary members started off the month spending a Sunday morning helping other people. My family always participates, and my dad went out to the Serving Our Seniors site to help reassure the local wildlife that our human friends were just cleaning and would leave their homes alone. My sisters and I got to help bake cookies for firefighters, pack school kits, and make blessing bags! Momma was with the Yarnwinders for a while, and then as she headed to check on us kids in the Family Life Center, she sat down and just stared at the door for a few minutes. You guessed it – the door was the focus of our family devotions that night! Here is a little of our devotion:

This door, decorated for last summer's Day Camp, Mission Possible: God's Love in Action, is a powerful reminder for our family and all of the families at Calvary. Every week, we enter through these doors and come into this place to be fed—fed by God's Word, surrounded by God's people, strengthened by worship, and reminded that we are deeply loved by God. But these doors are not only an entrance; they are also an invitation to go. When we walk back through them, we carry God's love with us into our homes, our workplaces, our schools, our neighborhoods, and our world. God's love is not meant to stop at the doors of Calvary. We are sent out to put that love into action—to notice someone who needs encouragement, to serve someone who is hurting, to welcome someone who feels alone, to forgive, to listen, and to share Christ's love in both big and small ways. So today, as you walk through these doors, remember your mission: You have been fed. You have been loved. Now go—and put God's Love in Action.

The fall program year is here and Calvary is busy every day again! Momma says us kids are sleeping really well at night because we are so busy with Kids Club, Bible Studies, Calvary Café and Sunday School! My favorite time of year is when the little crumb droppers are back!

Love, Walter
